Recently a customer came in to get her brake pads, rotors, and calipers done. Her life was at a standstill because of the "time consuming, unrelenting and stressful life that having no car to drive to get anything done" creates. Primarily, her car is used to get to the many doctor's appointments for her son, grandchildren, and herself, and "some good stuff, too." She drives to get to her medical health community, to volunteering opportunities when she can, and grocery shopping for her family. With new brakes and trust in her car, she is also able to drive to see her mother, who she hasn't seen in 3 years! She says, having a safe car has "lifted me to a much higher place."

Top reasons customers need their cars

Plus the many other chores and activities made easier by having a safe and working vehicle.
